

9th Annual Art Show & Silent Auction

Curator – Natalia Margarita Dominguez

Natalia Margarita is an elementary art teacher in Fort Worth to seven hundred students, kinder through fifth grade. She is the host of the National book club Las Comadres in Fort Worth, Gallery Committee Member at Galeria de la Rosa, a member of the Hispanic Women's Network of Texas Fort Worth Chapter, Art Juror for Vase & the DFW Employee Contest and an art teacher for College 4 Kids at Tarrant County College Northwest and Northeast campuses.

Natalia Margarita's involvement with the Fort Worth art community includes working at The Gift Shop at The Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth for four years. She has also been employed at several positions for Artes de la Rosa, managing company of the Rose Marine Theater. She has held the positions of visual arts instructor and dance teacher for Artes Academy, the free after-school liberal arts education program for underserved and at-risk youth. She also served as Coordinator and Curator for Artes Alley, the outdoor art market festival featuring fine artists from the DFW metroplex.

Natalia considers herself an art advocate for people of all ages that show interest in the art world. She is currently working on an art series entitled "The Right to Art" which will be displayed in a two-person art exhibit at Galeria de la Rosa, summer 2013.