

Elva Concha LeBlanc, Ph.D.

Biography

Elva Concha LeBlanc is president of the Northwest Campus of Tarrant County College District (TCCD). Northwest Campus is one of five campuses of TCCD, a multi-campus, single college district of over 49,000 enrollments. Northwest Campus has an enrollment of over 13,000 credit students.

Previously, as President of Galveston College, she led the transformation of that institution into a “Learning College” with a focus on student learning, assessment and outcomes. Given the limited local and state funding, Dr. LeBlanc led in the acquisition of external funding including Title V Federal Funds, TRIO programs, and Lumina Foundation’s “Achieving the Dream” Program.

Prior to serving Galveston, Dr. LeBlanc was Executive Vice President for Instructional Affairs at Austin Community College, a multi-campus, single college district with enrollments of over 30,000.

A former Tarrant County College student and alumna of the University of North Texas, Dr. LeBlanc served TCCD as professor, faculty chair, director of institutional effectiveness, and dean of instruction. She also taught graduate courses at University of North Texas.

Dr. LeBlanc has Bachelor of Science, Master of Education, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees from University of North Texas. She also completed post-doctoral work at Texas A&M University.

Dr. LeBlanc was elected to serve on the Board of Directors and as member of the executive council of the American Association of Community Colleges. Additionally, she was elected to serve on the Commission on Colleges, Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. She served on the Executive Council of the Commission on Colleges from 2005 to 2008 and was Vice Chair of the Commission from 2007-2008. She is Board Chair of the MHMR of Tarrant County and Chair of the Fort Worth Art Commission.
